FREE LOVE HOME BURNED TO GROUND

(United Press Leased Wire.) Santa Rosa, Cal., June 18 .- The

"manor house," famous as the headqurters of the late Thomas Lake reds, 65@75c; silver Harris, founder of a free love and spiritualistic colony, is a mass of charred ruins today and over $40,-000 worth of books belonging to the library of the colony and valuable bric-a-brac is a total loss.

The fire started last last night as sene lamp in the "manor house," gation that can put up enough whirla result of an explosion of a kero-John Cole, a relative of the Harris of the explosion and was badly burn-, early in the season to do so, but outfamily, was in the room at the time

The colony was founded by Harris who came out here from England proven yesterday afternoon. and attracted a large following Lawrence Oliphant, a distinguished English diplomat and writer, was a member of the colony at one time. Later his cousin wrote a novel making b"ter charges against Harris,

TEAM WINS FROM HIGH

The Salem high school champion of the state of Oregon in that class, were handed their first bumping yes terday afternoon by the Woodburn Tri-City league team, the score being 10 to 3.

The one-sided contest took place on the Willamette field, which was of rotten base running, especially by ! the high school players, who fell ail over themselves just at a time when the fast work should be pulled off and the Woodburn men, who are credited as being the fastest bunch in the Tri-City league on bases, made several steals, or tried to rather, that was sure slow, the high school lads putting their lamps out at every attempt to graft a sack, and three of the visitors were nailed while playing off his spot too far.

The battery for the local team apparently had an off day, as Keenes, the twirler who has the best record of any pitcher in the college rank in the state, was worked down to an easy mark by the sixth inning, he having lost his speed enabling the visitors to wallop him around the lot as they liked, to the chagrin of the Salem admirers of the high school team, and after the Woodburnites got next to his weakened condition. they waded in for some batting practice, and got it. Poland slammed a high one over the rightfield fence, and Laverier touched out a twobagger and the rest of the bunch fattened their batting averages by getting hits amounting to nine in all. Jones, the local backstop, made the "big hand" catch of the game of plate, but let several Woodburn men get free pases for one base on pass

The prettiest and only hit got off Bowen in the game, was picked by Perkins, the ball splitting the third bare just out or reach of Mangold covering that sack. Bowen was not there with his usual good contro! and let men have a number of bases on balls, including one dead ball. White, Woodburn's receiver, played an excellent game, and his pegs to the key-stone sack were right on the dot, but Poland covering second, let every throw drop that was intended to catch a ctealer.

The Salem high school youngsters can undoubtedly play the national game to a stand still, and the aggrewind playing to down them in their own class, will have to come out real side of their rank, there is nothing stirring for the boys, which was well

The Woodburn players were not in the game with the intentions of winning by good hard playing, as the Tri-City league had nothing to do with the contest, but an opportunity to gain good practice such as yesterdays game afforded could not be overlooked by them.

FIST FIGHT BETWEEN

MILLIONAIRES SETTLES DISPUTE San Francisco, June 18 .- A reconcilation was today effected between two millionaire mining men from Nevada and a local stock broker, who engaged in a spectacular firt fight in the lobby of the S .. Franc's hotel last night. In the presence of scores of guests who were lounging about the hotel, M. A. Teaque, a wealthy operator of Rawhide, M. H. Trutt, head of the big company that is operating the Trutt lease at Rawhide and J. A. Morris, a mining stock broker of this city, mixed it up in lively fashion for a few minutes. The dispute was over sales of the Trutt company stock, the Nevada Livery and Feed Stables old Post men claiming that the Morris had been deliberately selling short at a price considerably below the market in an attempt to ruin the company. The differences were adjusted, however, and today all parties concerned are reconciled.
